

To the Citizens and Constituents of Delta County,

My name is Dan Covault, and I am the Sheriff of San Miguel County, Colorado. I am writing to publicly endorse Undersheriff Quinn Archibeque in his campaign for the office of Sheriff.

Approximately six years ago, I was appointed Undersheriff in San Miguel County. I entered a professional environment that presented challenges I had not anticipated. Almost immediately, I was befriended by Quinn Archibeque. Over the years that followed, Quinn became both a mentor and a trusted friend. His depth of knowledge and experience proved invaluable as I learned to navigate leadership responsibilities. His sound advice, integrity, and strong moral compass were qualities I relied upon, particularly during difficult moments.

I have come to know Quinn as a loyal colleague, a dedicated public servant, and a man who has built his career on honesty and integrity. He possesses a strong foundation rooted in doing what is right, even when doing so may invite scrutiny or criticism. Quinn stands unwavering in his principles and is committed to ensuring that all people are treated fairly and justly.

If you, as a voter, are seeking to elect a leader who places community first, upholds the highest moral standards, and will consistently stand up for what is right, I encourage you to look no further than Quinn Archibeque.

Respectfully, and without hesitation,

Dan Covault
Sheriff
San Miguel County, Colorado
